

LIFESTYLES

Issue 11

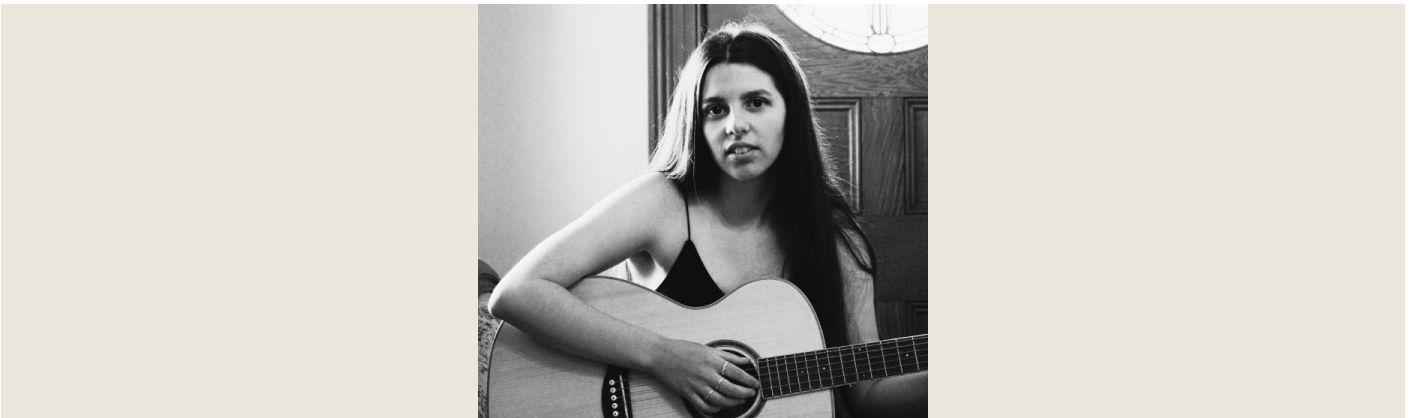

July 2023

THE NEXT CIRCUIT BREAKER

Kaytlyn Johnson supported by Tender Engines

JULY 22 @ 1:30 - 2.30 PM

EXCLUSIVELY FOR NWSS

Join us for an intimate evening of live music with Kaytlyn Johnson, a talented young Tasmanian Palawa woman, supported by The Tender Engines.

Kaytlyn Johnson is an Indie singer-songwriter from Wynyard, rural North-West Tasmania. With a heavy focus on lyrics and guitar-driven melodies, her music style is persuaded between dreamy and easy Sunday tunes through to pop-punk band angst and energy.

In 2020, She was selected for a song writing mentorship with Eurovision finalist Kate Miller-Heidke. Since then, Kaytlyn has been studying a Diploma of Music in Melbourne through the Victorian College of Arts. As a young Palawa woman, Kaytlyn has been inspired to write about her identity, her experiences and her dreams and has performed with reputable artists, such as GRAMMY award winning artist, Lucky Oceans, in partnership with BighART.

Supported by The Tender Engines includes members of seminal 1980's Tasmanian bands The Fish John West Reject, The Odolites and Noddy's Revenge. Following a string of 7" singles and an EP on the cult Summershine label in Melbourne in the late 80's they reformed in 2020, recently releasing the "Just Past Blythe Heads" digital EP.

DIRECT SERVICE TEAM MEMBERS

Please book clients by name, for this concert through emails to Neal Rodwell.

nrodwell@nwrss.org.au

The performance will commence at 1.30 sharp at the Watershed in Wynyard.

Tickets will be $5.00, collectable at entry.

The Circuit Breaker opens music and performance experiences that up until now have not been available to the people we support.

Show your support by helping people get to this event.

I LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR EMAIL BOOKINGS

THANK YOU