

Library

I love it
Plenty of books
Great books
That make me feel
I call it the strawberry
My library bag when I was small

was a pillow slip
with a drawstring

I like the library

Because I can do my emails

People are talking to me

I hear them

I hear their voice without a conversation

And I can get things off

the internet

Like dolphin pictures

Looking at books

Relaxing me

Calming you

You can't hear books

You can't tear books

Always tell

Report

If a book has been torn

We are polite

You can ring to say

You are sick with your leg

And can't get there

And they let me have my books longer

I have a tag
They keep my card
Do they have a slot
To post the books?

I know where the books are
How many are there?
I don't know when they have to go back

Opening times

You have to know what time
they open

I like to slowly walk
there

You have to be open

I like to choose my own picture books

Grown up ones

Its good for people that can't read

Big picture books

Libraries are full of words

words I don't know

Because I can't read

I just like to look at the pictures

And pretend I'm reading

And it doesn't really matter

And who cares

It doesn't really matter

The library is free
For me and you
Everybody
Can go to the library
But you have to be a mouse
You know what I mean You can't run around at the library
You can't swear Kick up a muck you gotta
be straightforward
And you have to take your books back on time

I just Find
My Books

THE RED BALLOON
well it must have been
A really
Extremely old book
I never see it anymore
This book is never to be seen anywhere

We used to be able to keep old torn books
I kept one about a budgie
You can't take overdate
books anymore
